

Title: Architectural Group Manager

Meier Architecture • Engineering is seeking a dynamic individual to join our team to fulfill Architectural Group Manager position. This position is full time with great benefits.

Description:

This is a key position. Responsible for developing and implementing architectural standards and for technical accuracy and code compliance of all architectural services prepared and delivered by the corporation. Responsible for the performance of architects and designers assigned to the architectural discipline. Supports new business development. Contributes to the corporate Strategic Plan and Marketing Plan.

Job Requirements:

- Must be a Registered Architect.
- NCARB certificate is preferred.
- Leadership capabilities in areas of communication, professional approach, personnel and project management.
- Capable of marketing architectural services.

About Us

Our staff and community are our biggest assets. We encourage and enable our staff to continually strengthen these assets. We celebrate victories together, recognize our peers when they go above and beyond the call of duty. We are truly a home away from home.

Meier's was established in Kennewick, WA in 1982. Meier is an award winning firm that has worked on projects across the United States and abroad.